Early Bird Pre-Registration for Accreditations (Badges) at the 26th JEONJU IFF Now Open!

- GUEST, INDUSTRY, and PRESS accreditations open for registration on March 13 (Thu)
- Benefits for badge holders: Access to screening tickets, discounts on festival souvenirs, and more!

The 26th JEONJU International Film Festival(JEONJU IFF, Festival Co-Directors Min Sungwook and Jung Junho) will open pre-registration for paid accreditations (badges) from March 13 (Thu) to April 15 (Tue).

There are four pre-registrable badges: GUEST, INDUSTRY, and PRESS at the 26th JEONJU IFF. Pre-registration for badges will be open from March 13 (Thu), 13:00 (KST) to April 15 (Tue). The pre-registration fee is KRW 70,000 for GUEST and INDUSTRY badges, and free for PRESS badges.

▶ GUEST / INDUSTRY

Film industry professionals, government agencies, and public institution employees are eligible to apply for GUEST or INDUSTRY accreditation. Those participating in the JEONJU Project should apply for INDUSTRY accreditation.

- Pre-registration fee: KRW 70,000
- On-site registration fee: KRW 100,000

▶ PRESS

Reporters and film critics affiliated with Korean or international media organizations, as well as critics and contributors who regularly write film-related articles, may apply for PRESS accreditation. Applicants must provide proof of their professional activities.

- Pre-registration fee: Free of charge for accredited applicants
- On-site registration fee: KRW 50,000

▶ Registration Process

To obtain accreditation, applicants must submit the required documents for approval by the festival office. Once approved, they can register personal information and make payments at the Guest Center during the festival period. On-site badge purchases will be available during the festival, subject to an additional registration fee.

▶ Benefits for Badge Holders

JEONJU IFF offers exclusive benefits to badge holders, including:

- Up to four screening tickets per day (for personal use only)
